PAOLI, Pa. (July 15th, 2018) – ExtremeTerrain (XT) is glad to announce the latest scholarship winner for the Fall 2018 semester: Jared Schmalstieg of Kansas State University. Jared joins six previous winners who have received scholarships from ExtremeTerrain, helping them to pursue a degree in Environmental Studies, Environmental Research, Land Use, Earth and Atmosphere Studies, Sustainable Land Management, Parks and Recreation or Sustainable Agriculture Systems.

Jared is currently pursuing his Bachelor of Science in Environmental Studies with a minor in Geology. Additionally, he is also planning to obtain a Professional Science Master’s degree in Environmental Assessment.

Introduced in 2015, the ExtremeTerrain scholarship is an essay-based program where entrants are instructed to describe who they are and why they feel it’s important to maintain access to public lands for recreational use as well as how they plan to use their degree to advocate for the recreational use of public lands.

ExtremeTerrain awards two scholarships annually, one in the Spring and one in the Fall, with over $21,000 awarded to date. With plans to keep awarding scholarships, XT is looking for their next high school senior or full-time student pursuing degrees in Environmental related fields of study. Interested students can send in a 700-1500 word essay, in accordance to the essay prompt, to scholarships@extremeterrain.com with proof of enrollment. Winners of the fall scholarship will be notified by July 15th and spring scholarship winners will be notified by November 15th.
